Call for Sponsors of Sapporo RubyKaigi 2012

SapporoRubyKaigi (SPRK) is one of the regional RubyKaigi in Japan, and will mark its fourth year since it was launched in 2008.

Even though Sapporo is located in the very northern part of Japan, Rubyists love Sapporo and they are pleased to gather at SPRK. Since we do not have "RubyKaigi 2012", Rubyists around the world pay close attention to this event.

Hundreds of people who are interested in Ruby will gather in this place and share the trends and the atmosphere around Ruby. We would be grateful if you would consider being a sponsor, and we look forward to hearing from you.
